Trust Review

May was an eventful month with the usual 'confession season' for those unfortunate small caps lagging market expectations juxtaposed by the continued strong performance of high growth (and highly priced) market darlings. For example not holding large index stocks such as Blackmores (+29.3%), Reliance (+25.3%) and Whitehaven (+13.9%) made relative performance challenging.

We were pleased that despite these headwinds we were able to outperform while not deviating from our value investing discipline. The outperformance of our portfolio was driven by a combination of takeover activity, accretive acquisitions and positive operational updates.

Sino Gas Energy (+38.2%) received a takeover bid from Lone Star, a private equity firm. We are pleased that a corporate has also noticed the value that we have seen in Sino Gas for many years. We will continue to hold our position as we believe other potential bidders may emerge over the next few months.

Accretive acquisitions lifted both Navigator Global Investments (+19.8%) and Integral Diagnostics (+18.7%). In both cases we believe changes to consensus estimates for FY19 as a result of the acquisitions (+8.2% and 15.9% respectively according to FACTSET) appear conservative.

Codan (+19.0%) provided a positive earnings update as well as detailing a very large contract with BHP for its Minetech business which until this year was loss-making.

Bapcor (+13.6%) confirmed guidance at a broker conference during the month.

On the negative side Gateway (-9.5%) forecast marginally lower settlements for FY18 and Fleetwood (-10.1%) disclosed higher losses in their RV business. While we were disappointed in both cases we believe there is significant valuation support in each case to justify holding at these levels.

Trust Activity

Several stocks previously not held in the Trust were aggressively sold off during May on the back of poor earnings updates. In some cases we believe overly emotional selling has created oversold situations which we are looking to exploit – to this end we have added several new names to the Trust during the month.

At month end the Trust held 59 stocks and cash of 1.2%.

Outlook

The Trust remains attractively priced when looking at our FY19 forecast with a price to earnings (P/E) ratio of 12.8 times (a 21.0% discount to the Index) and offering a 4.7% gross yield.

As always, our focus will continue to be on investing in quality companies which are offering attractive valuations.
